

PROPOSAL

Video and SEO for Dick's Pawn Superstore

Prepared for Jill · September 18, 2026

Four videos a month to start, run on your channels for you, with the SEO work included. That is the target either way — the plans differ on how the videos get made and how much of your time it takes.

	Standard	Full production
Price	$5,000 / month	$10,000 / month
Best for	Staying in front of people every week.	A flagship piece: a launch or a campaign.
How it is made	AI host pieces built from your own store photos, plus in-store filming. I shoot and produce.	Shot on location with a full crew, lighting and sound.
On camera	You and your staff.	Hired talent.
Your time	About half a day a month, when it suits you.	None.

The five-myths video I sent you is a Standard piece: presenter and store AI-generated from your own photos.

More than four videos

They get posted and managed across Instagram, Facebook and TikTok, and I watch what each one does — what works shapes the next batch. That is the point of running this every month rather than shooting a one-off.

Four a month is where we start, while we work out what your audience responds to. Once the pipeline is running, the goal is two, three, even four a week.

Where the money goes: me as filmer and producer, a dedicated editor on my team, the AI production platform and its render time, editing and design software, scheduling and analytics tools, the SEO work, and the hours spent posting and tracking what lands. A good share is spent before anything reaches your channels.

What I can and cannot promise

I cannot promise results, and four a month is a target rather than a fixed count — clause 3 spells that out. What I will do is tell you before a month falls short, not after. And if it is not working, you stop — any month, no reason needed.

There is no contract term.

No minimum term, no notice period, no cancellation fee. Email me and we stop — you are paid up through the month you are in.

Sign the agreement overleaf and send it back. Any questions first, call me on 806-544-8098.

AGREEMENT

Video and SEO agreement

Between Kyle Fries Marketing ("we") and Dick's Pawn Superstore ("you") · September 18, 2026

Plan (tick one) ☐ Standard — $5,000 per month ☐ Full production — $10,000 per month

1. What we do

A target of four finished short-form videos each month, posted and managed across your Instagram, Facebook and TikTok accounts, with how they perform reviewed to steer what gets made next. Plus ongoing SEO work on your website and your Google Business Profiles for all five stores. Each video runs 30 to 60 seconds, vertical and captioned, covering idea, script, production, editing, graphics and posting.

Four a month is a starting point while the pipeline is built. If more becomes realistic we will agree the new number, and any change to the price, in writing before it takes effect. Neither of us owes the other a higher number until then.

2. What it costs

The monthly price of the plan ticked above, invoiced on the first and due within 15 days. That is the whole cost — we will not invoice you for anything else unless we ask you first and you say yes in writing.

3. What we do not guarantee

We do not guarantee any particular result: views, followers, calls, walk-ins, search ranking or sales. Anything we have said about likely outcomes is an informed expectation based on research, past work and experience — not a promise.

We also do not guarantee a fixed number of deliverables. Four videos a month is a target. What actually gets made in a given month depends on the time and the resources available — including your staff for filming, a location we can film in, and access to the accounts. Where those fall short, the month's output falls short with them.

What we commit to is telling you before the month ends rather than after. If you are not happy with what a month produced, your remedy is to stop under clause 4. Clause 9 covers refunds.

4. Stopping

You can stop at any time, for any reason, by email. No minimum term, no notice period, no cancellation fee. We stop posting, hand back your account access and hand over everything we have made for you. We do not invoice you again. If we ever need to stop, you get 30 days' notice.

5. Running it without you

You approve nothing. We write, produce and post on our own — no drafts to review and no emails to answer. Every claim we put on screen comes from a short list of facts you confirm once at the start. If you ever see something you do not want up, tell us and it comes down the same day.

6. Filming, on the Standard plan

Some of each month's videos are filmed in your stores with your staff on camera. That needs about half a day a month, at a time you pick, worked around your opening hours. We bring everything else.

If a month comes when you cannot spare the time, we make that month's videos without filming and the invoice does not change. Full production uses our own talent and needs none of your people.

7. Who owns the videos

You do. Once a month's invoice is paid, that month's videos are yours outright, to use however and for as long as you want, including after you stop. We would like to show the work in our portfolio, but we will ask you first.

8. What we need from you

Photos of the stores, access to the accounts we post to, one pass over the facts list in clause 5, and staff for filming as described in clause 6.

9. Refunds and liability

Monthly payments are not refundable under any circumstances. The fee reserves capacity in our schedule for that month. It is not the purchase of a fixed number of items, and it is earned when the month begins. We do not issue refunds, part-refunds, credits, discounts or make-good work, and unused work does not carry into another month.

Before making any claim, you agree to raise the problem with us in writing and give us 15 days to put it right. You also agree not to dispute or charge back any payment with your bank or card issuer, and to bring any claim within six months of the month it relates to.

Your only remedy, if you are unhappy for any reason, is the one in clause 4: stop, at any time. Our total liability to you for anything arising out of this agreement is limited to the fees you paid for the month in which the issue arose, and neither of us is liable to the other for lost profits, lost revenue, lost goodwill or any other indirect loss.

10. Privacy, and the rest

Anything you share with us that is not already public stays between us, and account logins are used only to post your videos and handed back when we stop.

By signing, you confirm you have read this agreement, that you are not relying on anything said outside it, and that you have had the chance to take advice on it. This is the whole agreement and it replaces anything discussed before it. If any part of it is found unenforceable the rest still stands. South Carolina law governs it, and it can only be changed in writing, signed by both of us.
